- Social Security Numbers. If an individual's social security number must be included in a paper filed with the Court, only the last four digits of that number should be used.
- Names of Minor Children. If the involvement of a minor child must be mentioned, only the initials of that child should be used.
- Dates of Birth. If an individual's date of birth must be included in a paper, only the year of birth should be used.

In compliance with the E-Government Act of 2002, a person wishing to file a paper that contains any of the personal data identifiers listed above may, with the Court's permission, file an unredacted version of the paper under seal. The unredacted version shall be retained by the Court as part of the record. The Court may, however, still require the filing of a partially redacted version of the paper for the public file. Such paper shall be clearly identified as a redacted version.

The responsibility for redacting these personal data identifiers rests solely with counsel and the persons filing papers with the Court. The Clerk of Court will not review papers for compliance with this General Order.
